Open Cutting of Refined Sugars

New York, June 19.—Somewhat to the surprise of the trade, American Brothers lowered their prices for refined sugars 5 points on all grades yesterday morning. H. H. Howell, Son & Co., representing the National Sugar Refining Company, at once met the cut as far as hard sugars were concerned, but did not change their prices for the soft grades. No change was made by the American Sugar Refining Company in its list prices, but it was intimated by brokers that the company had accepted orders at the reduced rate.

The cut makes the market 4.65 cents a pound for granulated. Through the open cut in prices were unexpected, it was said in some trade quarters that they were the direct result of sharp competition of late between the refiners.

It is understood that rate cutting has been done and that yesterday's cuts were made to conform to the lower rates that have prevailed. It is said that the bulk of the large business recently booked was taken on the basis of 4.65 cents.

Banker Mickey for Governor of Nebraska

Lincoln, Neb., June 18.—The Republican State Convention met at 2:30 o'clock today. Norris Brown presided as temporary chairman, and his declaration that Nebraska must stand for Roosevelt was enthusiastically cheered. He said that it was the duty of Nebraska to stand back of the President in the execution of every policy in the Philippines and in Cuba that McKinley conceived and his successor is endeavoring to execute. S. P. Davidson, of Johnson, was elected permanent chairman and balloting for Governor was begun.

On the thirteenth ballot J. H. Mickey, a banker of Polk county, was nominated for Governor.

The platform adopted affirms the Philadelphia platform and commands President Roosevelt on his Cuban revolt policy, his hold stand against unlawful combinations in restraint of trade and his championship of irrigation.

Five Hours Rioting in Paterson Strike

Paterson, June 18.—The 8-week-old strike of the silk dyers' helpers developed today into riot and mob violence which raged for five hours, unchecked by the police, who at the outset were practically leaderless and who at no time were equal to the emergency. Violence came to an end only when the rioters had accomplished what they set out to do—stop work in every silk mill in Paterson.

In the course of the rioting nine persons were shot and wounded seriously enough to be taken to the hospitals. Scores of others were slightly wounded by bullets, and many were hurt by bricks and broken glass. Serious damage was done to the mill property. Of the nine persons taken to the hospitals three are probably mortally wounded. Two of them are rioters and were shot by the police. The third is Harry L. Harris, a newspaper reporter for the Paterson Call. He was stoned by the mob, knocked down, kicked, beaten and finally fired upon. One bullet went through his right lung. His chances for recovery are slight.

Elevator Falls in a Department Store

New York, June 19.—Fourteen persons were taken to the New York and St. Vincent's hospitals yesterday who had been hurt by an elevator accident in the Macy store at Sixth avenue and Fourteenth street. An Otis elevator, which was in the newest part of the great store, and which had recently been inspected, dropped four stories. So far as could be learned last evening one of the cables which supported the elevator broke. John Harrigan, a colored elevator man of long experience in the store, had just started the elevator down from the fourth floor. His hands were horribly burned in attempting to control the car.

WORK ON WHITE HOUSE

RESTORING BUILDING FOR PRESIDENT'S USE

The Main Entrance on Pennsylvania Avenue to Be Used Solely For Private Purposes --Improvements.

Washington, June 18.—The work of dismantling the White House has already been begun. Everything has been removed from the East room, the largest apartment in the house, including the massive mirrors, the great crystal chandeliers and the portraits of Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and Martha Washington. As soon as the President leaves for the summer, the State parlor and the private part of the house will be dismantled and the reconstruction will be executed as rapidly as possible under the direction of the architects engaged for the work.

The original plans for the White House contemplated its use solely as a residence for the President. The work just begun will restore the White House as a residence and a small hotel building, connected by a passageway with the main building and painted white in harmony with its surroundings, will provide an office for the President and the clerical executive force, which is now crowded into several rooms on the second floor of the building. Under the new plans the main entrance to the White House fronting on Pennsylvania avenue will be used exclusively as a private entrance.

Among the improvements the dining room will be made 60 per cent larger, so as to permit the entertainment of a large company and make unnecessary the use of the guest room for State dinners.

Porticos are to be placed on the west and on the east of the White House in conformity with old plans in the Library of Congress. These porticos extend 150 feet from the main building and contain servants' quarters, laundry, store rooms and the conservatory, now there. The porticos are on a level with the garden on the south, while on the north the roofs reach to the driveway. The use to be made of the west or portico will allow the basement of the White House itself to become available for other purposes, such as cloak rooms, a smoking room, etc.

The portico east of the house will be used as an entrance on occasion of receptions. This arrangement will do away with the crush now occasioned at the temporary cloak boxes that are erected immediately within the main entrance when receptions are held. Under the east corridor 500 persons could be sheltered while waiting for their carriages, the porte-cochere being sufficient to make room for three carriages at a time.

Separate entrances and dressing rooms will be provided for special guests, so that confusion will be avoided on occasions of ceremony. The President will have a room in the White House in which he can see callers at times when he is not in his office. The private staircase will be removed and in that way the enlargement of the dining room effected. It is expected that the office building will be ready for occupancy by October 1, and the remaining portion of the house by December 1.

SECOND TEST MATCH.

The second test match, like the first, was, owing to weather conditions, ended in a draw. This, of course, is an unsatisfactory termination; but, perhaps, after all, it was as well, as the Australians, in consequence of the illness of several members of the team, were not likely to have done themselves justice. As it was, the hour and a half's play possible provided its own travelling. The start of the Englishmen was startling. Hopkins disposing of two great batsmen in Fry and Ranjitsinhji before a run had been scored. Afterwards, however, two other equally fine batsmen in Jackson and MacLaren completely retrieved the situation, scoring 102 runs without the loss of any further wickets.
